

JIM YOUNG

WHEREAS, Jim Young has served his community well as a valuable member and one of the City of Crossville's appointments to the Industrial Development Board since July 1987 and serving as Secretary/Treasurer for many of those years; and

WHEREAS, these years of service have been marked by unprecedented growth and changes for which the Industrial Development Board has served an invaluable role in embracing and supporting new industries and industrial expansion in Crossville and Cumberland County; and

WHEREAS, during the years he has served in this capacity, he has displayed unparalleled dedication to the best interests for the future of this growing community; and

WHEREAS, Jim Young has earned the admiration and regard of the people with whom he has served;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MAYOR JAMES S. MAYBERRY, on behalf of the entire City Council and the citizens of Crossville, do hereby recognize JIM YOUNG with the Distinguished Service Award for his outstanding efforts and voice our sincere appreciation for his leadership and distinguished service to this community.
