

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH
OCTOBER 2014

WHEREAS, domestic and sexual violence transcends all ethnic, racial, and socioeconomic boundaries with the effects of the attacks weakening the very core of our communities and more women being injured by domestic violence each year than by automobile accidents and cancer combined; and

WHEREAS, Avalon Center provided services to 1,449 adults and 67 children who were victims of abuse in Cumberland County during the fiscal year 2013-2014 and

WHEREAS, during the fiscal year 2013-2014, Avalon Center provided professional counseling to 99 persons and sheltering 167 for total bed nights of 1,685, as well as 303 events for training and public awareness to 11,961 people; and

WHEREAS, through a national effort, the citizens of Crossville are encouraged to join together to raise awareness throughout the month of October for those men, women and children who have fallen victim to domestic violence;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, J. H. Graham, III, Mayor of the City of Crossville, Tennessee, do hereby designate and proclaim October 2014 as DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH in Crossville, Tennessee and urge all citizens to join in the effort to raise awareness, provide assistance and support to the victims, and put an end to domestic violence.
