

JORDAN THOMPSON

“Student of the Month”

NOVEMBER 2013

Third Grade student Jordan Thompson was nominated for the character trait “manners” because “he comes to school each day with a fine display of impeccable manners. Jordan also uses good manners by helping others in his school. For these reasons, we are proud to nominate Jordan Thompson as Martin Elementary’s Student of the Month for the character trait of manners.”

NOVEMBER IS “MANNERS” MONTH

“Manners guide our behavior in social situations, giving us dignity and confidence.”
