Approval to accept proposal and contract from Cumberland Applied Research Associates, Inc. related to TAP Grant-Downtown Sidewalks

SUMMARY: The City solicited Requests for Proposals to retain services of a professional cultural resources firm with qualified staff to produce a Section 106 report, that will identify historic properties, evaluate historic significance, and assess effects in the downtown area. The report will also identify properties to be acquired for right-of-way or easements, within the National Register properties, if any. Staff recommends accepting proposal from Cumberland Applied Research Associates, Inc. in the amount of $6,850.56 and authorizing signature of the attached contract.
